NNJSGNA 2024 President Elect

☐ Ann Marie Allerey-Quimbo BSN RN CGRN

Ann Marie has been a nurse for over 35 years. She graduated from York College of Pa. with a BSN. Over the years, Ann Marie gathered experience from medical Diabetic/Dialysis floor, Surgical and Medical ICUs between St. Joseph Medical Center in Paterson and Hackensack University Medical Center (HUMC). Ann Marie now is an Endoscopy Nurse for 23 years and a SGNA member for 21+ years. She has served as President-elect/President in 2014 and 2015 when the chapter joined the social media platform Facebook; as well as treasurer for two terms in 2018-2022 in which initiated the acceptance of credit cards at the NJ SGNA Tri-Regional conferences. She has collaborated in various chapter committees: Updating Bylaws, Policy for National and local scholarships, Policy for Tri-Regional Conference, among others. She has been vital in several NJ tri-regional conference planning committees through the years. Currently, she co-chairs the 2023 NJ state conference with Ivonne Carvajal BSN RN CGRN. At HUMC, her leadership roles include participation in the Unit Base Council and Staff Advisory Council as well as in initiating, organizing, and conducting the Night of Endoscopy/ Competency events. During the COVID pandemic, adding to the demands of the time, she engaged in research regarding scope reprocessing on endoscopes used on COVID infected patients. She takes pleasure in meeting her colleague's in-house educational needs, so much, Ann Marie is enrolled in a master's degree towards Nursing education. As a nominee for president-elect, she is looking forward to continuing serving our NNJ chapter and eager about what the future holds ahead.

NNJSGNA 2024-2026 Treasurer

☐ Deborah Castro BSN RN CGRN

Deborah Castro is an Endoscopy nurse with a diverse background including OR, Emergency Medicine, Maternal/Child Health, Home Health, and Case Management. She obtained her BSN from the College of Mount Saint Vincent and since, she has maintained her competencies with current and ongoing educational updates. Deborah is currently at The Valley Hospital where she became part of the Endoscopy team for the past two years. To support her GI professional nursing care, she is currently preparing to obtain her Certification in Gastroenterology Nursing. Deborah keeps busy with family and teenagers, reading, traveling, and keeping up with personal and professional development. Given the opportunity, she is looking forward at working in support of this thriving nursing professional chapter.
